Mr. and Mrs. Earl Seckel Find Dwelling Looted in Return from Marion.

A burglar took clothing, household articles and a gun from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Seckel of three and one-half miles east of Marion on Harding highway Saturday night.

The burglary was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Seckel when they went to their home at 10 p. m. after closing their grocery store at 215 North Main street. They estimated the value of the missing property at $70.

Mrs. Seckel discovered the rear door standing open as she and her husband drove into the yard. They told deputies of Sheriff C. F. Pye before entering the house, then went to the home of Mr. Seckel's father, James Seckel, and returned armed.

Mr. Seckel said the burglar apparently left in haste after quickly collecting the contents of a gun, a pair of shoes, a hat and a few articles of clothing. Missing articles included a 16-gauge shotgun, two suits of clothing and miscellaneous articles of clothing belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Seckel.

Authorities investigating the burglary said the burglar apparently had used a skeleton key to enter the house, as no locks were broken. Sheriff's deputies this morning took three colored persons, whose automobile had been seen near the Seckel residence Saturday night, to police station for questioning, but released them shortly afterward. They had stopped near the Seckel home when their automobile broke down, officers said.

this question with the President a few days ago. Not only was it pleased over the rapidly with which the states are accomplishing ratification but he is eager that we finish the task at the earliest possible moment so that in planning the national budget for the next and succeeding years he can utilize the proper return to the national treasury of revenues from legitimate alcoholic beverages which now are going in the form of enforced tribute to the illicit traffickers of the underworld—the bootleggers and racketeers.

"If we could have repeal by an executive order tomorrow," assured President Roosevelt, "would have written such an order months ago."

Fearly said "the advocates of repeal represent the forces of true temperance in the United States." He credited the "youth of the country" with determining prohibition was a tragic mistake.

The Democratic national chairman said one reason for the steady return of triumph was:

"Men and women, Democratic, Republican, Farmer-Laborites, independent voters of every class and creed and color have marched to the polls shoulder to shoulder, to smash these sometimes astonishing majorities for repeal. It is a fine and gratifying display of the unity of purpose among the American people."

CLEVELAND STRIKE PEACE NEGOTIATED

Street Car Men's Union Gets Recognition in Settlement Due for Completion Today.

By The Associated Press. CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 11.—Settlement of Cleveland's threatened street car strike reached the final stage today on the basis of an agreement proffered by the Cleveland Railway company, formally granting recognition to the street car men's union.

Charles B. Barnes, mediator of the NRA's national labor board, said he expected the negotiations to be completed today.

"The company has gone back to some respect to its policy prior to 1923," he said, "and is giving full recognition to the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees. The railway once more recognizes the union as an organization with which it may deal in collective bargaining."

When the street car men voted Thursday to strike, they made union recognition their chief demand. A 25 per cent wage increase also was asked, but union leaders agreed to refer the wage increase to arbitration providing they were granted recognition.

Intervention by General Hugh S. Johnson, other NRA officials, and national officers of the union brought about a postponement of the strike, originally set for Friday.

OHIO REPEAL FIGHT LEADER APPOINTED

By International News Service. CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 11.—Warning against overconfidence is the fight for repeal of the prohibition laws. Benedict Crowell, chairman of the Ohio Repeal council, has designated Col. John A. Hughes to fill the newly created office of director of the militant organization.

Col. Hughes, prominent in Cleveland and throughout the state in the fight for repeal, will have complete charge of the group of the council until Nov. 2 when the two important sections of repeal measures, ratification of national repeal and repeal of the state prohibition amendment will be submitted to the voters.

Col. Hughes' first public meeting will be in Cincinnati probably Oct. 12, he said, when he will address repeal adherents from 16 southwestern Ohio counties.

In announcing the appointment of Col. Hughes, Crowell said:

"Ohio voters are making a grave mistake in taking repeal for granted in this state. Every time an repeal vote is put for ratification, it makes our job more difficult here. Voters forget that Ohio is the home of prohibition and the dry movement. The dries are organized and they are now starting a vigorous campaign."

"The most important thing for Ohio voters to remember is that we must repeal our state prohibition amendment on Nov. 7. If we should wake up on the morning of Nov. 8 and find that Ohio had failed to ratify the rest of the states would all go wet and still we would have strict prohibition in Ohio."

CLONDBURST KILLS 8 ON RESERVATION

Homes of Indians Swept Away as Streams Become Raging Torrents.

By The Associated Press. FORT THOMPSON, S. D., Sept. 11.—A cloudburst that swelled creeks into raging torrents, took eight lives and caused heavy damage on the Crow Creek Indian reservation.

Members of two Indian families trapped by the onrushing waters as they slept, yesterday, were drowned. Fifteen other persons were marooned for some time before they were rescued.

A downpour of rain that measured 10 inches sent a 12-foot wall of water raging down Soldier's creek. It crushed the Fred Loudner home, and Loudner, aged 41, his wife, 37, their four children ranging in age from 3 to 17 years, and Mr. and Mrs. Sol LaPlante, of Rosebud, were swept away in the wreckage. EINSTEIN PROTECTED BY ARMED GUARDS

German Mathematician Flees to England After Price is Put on Head.

By The Associated Press. CROMER, NORFOLK, England, Sept. 11.—Anybody attempting to locate Albert Einstein in his humble refuge on the Norfolk coast may get bullets from guns of his host's game keepers.

And if Commander Oliver Locker-Lampson himself is around, any intruder may have to face the revolver which the member of parliament reputedly is carrying while the celebrated mathematician is under his protection.

Professor Einstein arrived from London yesterday, fleeing reported Nazi threats against his life, and set about at once in his quiet, tree-surrounded retreat to work on a new mathematical theory—the nature of which was not disclosed, and to prepare for lectures in America next month.

Dr. Einstein said he was not responsible for the "brown book" which incurred Hitlerite wrath and which, Nazis alleged, was a compilation of victims of persecution.

"I was on a committee which authorized publication of the book," Einstein said, "but did not write anything in it, although I agree with its contents."

Einstein arrived in England from Belgium Saturday night following a report that Nazis had put a price of about $8,000 on his head.

Since the Nazi revolution Dr. Einstein has virtually been exiled from Germany.

Homemaker's
Question Box

Question—What points should I mind in selecting materials for my daughter's school dress?

Answer—No matter what age the daughter is, the big problem in selecting materials for her school dress will be the same. You want to consider your daughter's school dress from two standpoints: one which have to do with service and wearing quality, and one which pertain to beauty.

Many mothers like first to see the dress in good design and color, and then select from the less expensive fabrics those which are in keeping with the better qualities.

A fabric needs to be rather close woven to give satisfactory service. Silky materials lose their luster and become prematurely shabby. The yarns in the material should be even in size their entire length.

'SLEEPING SICKNESS'
QUERIES ANSWERED

Information from Health Department Cited by Dr. N. Siffritt.

In answer to a number of inquiries regarding "sleeping sickness" which have come to the county health office since that disease recently began taking a heavy toll in St. Louis, Dr. Siffritt, county health commissioner, has cited information furnished him by the state department of health regarding the disease.

The same sleeping sickness that has attained epidemic proportion in Missouri has been in Ohio for at least 15 years and in that time has killed 1,400 persons, Dr. Siffritt said. Just why it has not taken epidemic form in this state, no one can say, he added.

It attacks young and old and, affecting as it does the central nervous system by plunging its victims into the prolonged helplessness of an unnatural sleep that may last for days or weeks, it is one of the most dreaded diseases known, he said. The death rate is high.

It usually begins, Dr. Siffritt said, with only a slight feeling of approaching illness and a little fever. A severe headache soon follows accompanied by drowsiness, fogginess, muscular weakness, dimmed vision and lastly the distinguishing characteristic, the "sleep" are symptoms of the disease. The patient can usually be aroused but immediately falls back into his previous condition.

In many cases, recovery is complete within two weeks or less after acute symptoms have subsided. In others there are changes in the mental state, loss of function in various muscles and obstinate palsies. No satisfactory treatment has been discovered.

Twenty-four cases have been officially reported in Ohio this year.

Crowded Port

(Will Rogers Special)

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Sept. 11—Well, I guess I am all wet as usual, but a headline in all the papers like this don't particularly add to my patriotism, "Cuba picks new president as battleship Mississippi steams into port," any more than the following one would, "United States of America having internal trouble and His Majesty King George has dispatched his dreadnaughts to stand by in New York harbor to protect British investments in America, and to see that the right man is selected."

But that couldn't happen, for they are both big nations, and would mean war. But when one nation is big and one is little, why the little nation's port is just like a public regatta. Everybody can come in that's got a boat. The whole thing as I see it all over the world today is that the little nations has got no business being little.

Yours,

Will Rogers

Reverend J. F. Hutchinson, minister of the Methodist

We drove down the embankment, turning

If it had not been for the steel

PASTOR, WIFE FOUND SLAIN

Son Sought After Gun Is Identified As One Borrowed by Him.

By The Associated Press
RIPLEY, W. Va., Sept. 11.—Beat on and shot to death, the bodies of Rev. A. M. Eddy and his wife were found at their home at Grace Fork today.

They were found by a neighbor who stumbled over Mrs. Eddy's body as he left his home. He followed a trail of blood to the Eddy house and into a bedroom where Mr. Eddy was found in bed.

Mr. Eddy, pastor of the M. Hope church of God, had been shot to death while sleeping. Indications were his wife was awakened by the shots and fled wounded from the house.

She had been pursued and shot again as she ran down the highway. Then, officers said, as they followed the trail of evidence, her assailant beat her over the head with a shotgun.

The weapon shattered by repeated blows at Mrs. Eddy, was found beside her body at the edge of a small culvert.

Officers said the gun had been identified as one borrowed from a neighbor several weeks ago by the minister's son, Ralph, 16. Ralph could not be located nor could the Eddy automobile be found.

Search for the youth was started immediately by state police and county officers.

Officers said Ralph is a son of Eddy's first wife.

GOVERNMENT PUSHES WORK ON COAL CODE

Seeks Agreement Before End of Week; Senator Wagner Voices Plea.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—President Roosevelt's recovery administration summoned every day today for an effort Hugh S. Johnson hoped would bring soft coal operators into agreement on an industrial code before the week is out.

Johnson called groups of operators for new personal negotiations dealing with the long list of objections filed by bituminous coal employers to the charter drafted by Johnson with President Roosevelt's approval.

Many of the objections dealt with labor relations—a subject which yesterday drew from Senator Wagner of New York an appeal that employers and employees "forget all feuds" and "back the President's program by submitting their disputes to the national labor board."

A delegation representing the national shoe workers association and a shoe workers protective union arrived today with a substitute code of competition for the boot and shoe industry for presentation to morrow to NRA administrators.

Hearings on the shoe code open tomorrow with manufacturers prepared to demand retention of the merit clause and labor ready to denounce the manufacturers' minimum wage and maximum hour proposals.

LOAN PROGRAM OUTLINED HERE

Marion County Agent of Federal Service Goes To Toledo for Instructions.

Henry P. Drake, appraiser and acting agent in this county for the Home Owners' Loan corporation, is in Toledo today to obtain detailed information regarding the handling of appraisals and loans.

Appraisals of property will be one of the first steps of procedure after eligibility of the applicant has been determined.

The Washington, D. C. office of the corporation today issued circulars to banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions setting forth in detail the features of its bonds to be issued soon in exchange for first mortgages on homes.

The bonds will run for 18 years, at one and one-half per cent interest, payable semi-annually, the circular stated.

Only first mortgages will be accepted by the corporation as security for the bonds, and in each instance the mortgage must be secured by real estate worth at least 25 per cent more than the par value of the bonds exchanged.

The bonds are further secured by the capital stock of the corporation in the amount of $200,000,000, all of which has been subscribed by the government.

The bonds are exempt both as to principal and interest from all federal, state, municipal and local taxation, except surtaxes, estate, inheritance and gift taxes.

It is expected, the circular states, that an open market for the sale of these bonds will be established in the near future, although many institutions which will accept them in exchange for mortgages have indicated that they will hold the bonds as investments.

Big Island Dairy Provides Clean Healthful Goat Milk

Goat milk is comparatively unknown in most homes in America. It is, however, one of the oldest foods known to man.

Twenty-three goats are being fed and carefully cared for at the Big Island Goat Dairy, five miles west of Marion, just a short distance off the Kenton highway, Route 308.

Sixteen of these are now producing milk which is delivered daily by the owner, Miss J. Hazel Ault, to Marion homes.

Miss Ault supervises the work connected with this enterprise and is assisted by Miss Rena Kerns.

Their daily schedule includes milking at 5:30 a. m. when all containers are put through a highly approved process to assure sterilization.

The goats are killed and they are smart enough to know their names. They also learn to unlatch the gates and doors on the way to the milking places.

STANDARD AUTO PARTS INTERIOR

Pictured above is a photograph of the interior of the Standard Auto Parts Co. at 182 North Main street showing a few of the special machines used by the concern daily in the turning out of special motor jobs. The company is equipped for any kind of work on motors.

machine is so accurately made that it cuts its way through steel with such exact precision that only a trained mechanic can appreciate its merits.

Connecting rods must have bearings but this should be a complete bearing. An impossibility when straped in by the old hand method but made almost perfect by the machines in this shop.

Parts of all kinds are made to fit perfectly. Motor blocks are re-bored often to a closer accuracy than when they left the factory.

Special oil rings are installed, which will save you many dollars in power saved, which means oil and gasoline to pay for.

In fact little could be wished for in this specialized field of automobile replacement parts that can not be had at the Standard Auto Parts

RIDING SAFER ON GENERALS

Up-To-Date Features Give These Tires Advantages Hitherto Unknown.

Prediction is made that the automotive engineers of the next decade will concentrate their efforts toward making cars safer. It seems at times that with four wheeled brakes and shatterproof glass this stage has been reached.

Certainly the speed attained now and the relative freedom from accidents is remarkable enough. But when engineers begin to devote their attention to greater safety, marvels may be produced.

It is confidently believed that any such program will start with the tires. There are people who say it has already started, and that remarkable results have been accomplished in this respect.

One of the tires that stresses this safety feature is the General in its special balloons the claims is made that with less air pressure than is recommended for any other tire the General secures an increased traction that gives it greater freedom from slipping puts more of the tire tread on the road, makes braking more effective and absorbs more road shocks.

These factors all contribute to the safety of the car. Freedom from the tendency to slip is secured by placing more of the tread surface against the road, and freedom from bumps is gained by taking up the shocks in specially designed buttresses that carry the shock. The Haruff Tire Store states that these considerations are bringing more people to the use of this tire each week, and that those who use them are well satisfied.

HOME PHOTOS FIND FAVOR

Bauer Studio Ready To Make Pictures Amid Familiar Surroundings.

One of the happy customs that has grown into great favor lately is that of having a photograph made of the family in their home. Sometimes this is done for each individual in the family, and sometimes of the family as a group.

Here, in the familiar surroundings of the home the photo seems to have an unusual value. It is a permanent record of the association that in years to come will prove invaluable.

Despite the alarmist writers there is a great deal of family life in American today that is most charming in its fraternity and happiness, and the young people especially who have enjoyed the benefits of such homes will treasure photographs of them.

Individual photos in the home, too, have a value even higher than the same photograph taken at a studio, in that they show one amid the surroundings that go to make up life. The baby in his crib sound asleep in the love's poses that children assume, is far more satisfactory than the same child amid the strangeness of the studio.

Many photographers do not encourage this practice, some are not equipped to do it, but Adam Bauer, at 128 1/2 South Main street, is equipped and enjoys making pictures amid national surroundings. Suppose you phone 2758 right now for an appointment.

Facts you should know, but for now let us say that from the point of sanitation the Big Island Goat Dairy is doing everything possible to deliver to you as wholesome a product as nature can produce.

Mrs. E. J. Hollandshead, who is in charge of the Sunday school, today expressed her appreciation

Marion Physician and Wife Wed 50 Years Today

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Seiter of 353 South Main street today are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary at their home. The day also marks the eighty-first birthday anniversary of Dr. Seiter.

While no formal observance of the anniversary has been planned, Dr. and Mrs. Seiter will receive a number of their close friends at a reception this evening in their home.

Dr. and Mrs. Seiter were married at the home of the latter's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Haber, who then lived on North Main street. The ceremony was read by Rev. Bates, a Baptist minister. Mrs. Seiter's maiden name was Emma Albrecht and she was the daughter of Spencerville where the couple resided for a few years after their marriage.

Born in Richland Twp., Dr. Seiter was born in Richland township, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Seiter. His father and grandfather were pioneers of Richland township, walking to this part of the country from the northwest.

Dr. Seiter graduated from the Cleveland Homeopathic Hospital college in 1881 and practiced medicine in Spencerville, Clarington and Marion. While not actively engaged in the practice of medicine he still maintains an office at his residence. Dr. Seiter served as mayor of Marion in 1909 and 1910. He is affiliated with the I. O. O. F. lodge.

Dr. and Mrs. Seiter have four children, Mrs. J. E. Oliphant of 475 South Vine street, Homer Seiter of Gallon, Frank Seiter of Chestnut street and Miss Margaret Seiter at home. Two sons are deceased.

Celebrate At Reunion
The celebration of the golden wedding anniversary and of Dr. Seiter's birthday anniversary were features of the ninth annual reunion of the Daniel Seiter Sr. family which was held Sunday at the home of Daniel Seiter Jr. on the Richland pike.

Ninety-five persons attended the reunion from Cleveland, Columbus, Toledo, Lima, Gallon, Spencerville, Marion and vicinity.

Daniel Seiter Jr. was elected president, W. T. Owen, vice president, and S. W. Almendinger of near Waldo, secretary-treasurer. The 1934 reunion will be held at the same place.
